

1. Introduction

The following general conditions of use of the web page regulate the terms and conditions of access and use of www.mediimplantes.com, property of Mediimplantes S.A., with the following physical address: Parque Industrial Bucaramanga Manzana C. Bodega 10, and the following NIT (Tax Identification Number): 804.010.334, hereinafter, "the Company", that the user of the web must read and accept to use all the services and information provided from the portal. The access and / or use of the portal, of all or part of its contents and / or services, means full acceptance of the following general conditions of use.

2. Terms of use

The present general conditions of use of the web page regulate the access and use of the portal, including the contents and services made available to users in and / or through the portal, either through the portal, by its users, or by third parties. However, access and use of certain content and / or services may be subject to certain specific conditions.

3. Modifications

The company reserves the right to modify at any time the general conditions of use of the Portal. In any case, it is recommended that you periodically consult the present terms of use of the Portal, since these may be modified.

4. User Obligations

The user must at all times respect the terms and conditions established in the present general conditions of use of the portal. The user expressly manifests that he will use the portal diligently and assuming any responsibility that may arise from the breach of the rules.

Likewise, the user may not use the portal to transmit, store, disclose, promote or distribute data or contents that are carriers of viruses or any other computer code, files or programs designed to interrupt, destroy or impair the operation of any program, or of any IT or telecommunications equipment.

5. Responsibility of the portal

The user knows and accepts that the portal does not grant any guarantee of any nature, whether express or implicit, about the data, contents, information and services that are incorporated and offered from the portal.

Except for cases in which the Law expressly imposes otherwise, and exclusively with the measure and extent in which it is imposed, the Portal does not guarantee or assume any responsibility with respect to possible damages caused by the use of the information, data and Portal services.

In any case, the Portal excludes any liability for damages and losses that may be due to the information and / or services provided or provided by third parties other than the Company. All responsibility will be from the third party, whether supplier or collaborator.

6. Intellectual and industrial property

All the contents, brands, logos, drawings, documentation, computer programs or any other element susceptible of protection by the legislation of intellectual or industrial property, which are accessible in the portal correspond exclusively to the company or its legitimate holders and all rights over them are expressly reserved. It is expressly forbidden to create hypertext links to any element of the web pages of the Portal without the authorization of the company, provided they are not a Portal web page that does not require identification or authentication for access, or if it is restricted.

In any case, the portal reserves all rights to the contents, information, and services that it holds about them. The portal does not grant any license or authorization of use to the user about its contents, data or services, different from the one that is expressly detailed in the present general conditions of use of the portal.

The information published on this website is related to the products and services of Mediimplantes S.A. The information provided does not replace the existing relationship with the health specialist. Medi-implant does not provide health services, nor does it provide medical advice; The information contained on this website should not be considered medical advice. You should always consult the specialist for the topics that correspond to diagnoses and treatments.

7. POLICY OF PROTECTION AND PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

All the information provided by THE USER and collected through the established service channels, is governed by the rules stipulated in the Personal Data Protection Policy of MEDIIMPLANTES SA which can be found on the website www.mediimplantes.com or through the email sqr@mediimplantes.com.

Any registry that is used for the collection of personal data will contain a PRIVACY NOTICE in which the user will be informed of the location of the Personal Data Protection Policy and THE USER will always have the option of accepting the collection of their data and the treatment of them in accordance with the policy, however, to respond to requests that may come to be made through the established channels of service, it will be necessary to accept these terms and conditions and personal data protection policies.

As a USER you agree to provide real, accurate, updated and complete information about yourself, or if you use the services on behalf of a legal entity, about the entity in case it is requested, and undertake to maintain and update in a timely manner the Registration data so that they are always truthful, accurate, updated and complete.